Local Young Man Arrested On Serious Charge Of Arson

Peter Lucarikius, a former employe of the Monessen Savings & Trust Co., and one of the best known young foreign men of this city, was arrested last evening by Constable Woolsey on a charge of arson. He was placed in the local lockup and will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Watkins this evening if the Deputy Fire Marshall arrives in time.

Lucarikius is charged with setting fire to the house in which he resided on Park Way on the night of April 20. The house was the property of C. S. Pore, but Lucarikius owned the furniture, which was insured. No one was about the house when the fire was discovered by neighbors, but it is claimed a man was seen leaving the buiding just before the "bummer" arrived at the local station from Pittsburgh. The officials will atempt to prove that Lucarikius, who owns a pool room in Brownsville, was in town the night of the fire and left here on the midnight train for Brownsville.

The fire seemed to have started both in the cellar and living room and burned through the floors, almost completely destroying the furniture and badly damaging the house. The of the fire and ate inarfnf-oMrh-ahR Deputy Fire Marshall was notified of the fire and after an investigation ordered the arrest of Lucarikius.

Police Court News

Andy Copyk was before Burgess Dunlap this morning charged with striking a friend in the eye with his fist. The friend appeared at the hearing and the evidence proved that Andy had a right to hit him, so the costs were divided, each man paying a fine of $1.00. Mike Kizma got in a fight in Wild Cat Hollow and not having the necessary $5.00 fine will work on the street for three days. Mike Cinch, no home and nothing to eat, got drunk and will spend 2 days working for the borough. Charles Scoka, of Donora, refused to pay his fare on a jitney bus. He had a fine of $4.00 to pay and the jitney driver was on hand to collect the 10 cent fare.

Local Cartoonist

Miss Anna Corrigan, bookkeeper for M. Rozner, the Schoonmaker avenue meat market man, is making quite a name for herself as a cartoonist, and specimens of her handiwork have been recently published in the Pippco Boomer, a snappy magazine issued by the Pittsburgh Provision and Packing company. This magazine is published monthly and contains interesting articles in regards to their products as well as useful hints to their customers.

In the August issue, Miss Corrigan has one of her cartoons, showing a fat and jolly appearing butcher with cleaver in his hand chasing a dog and the following article composed by the cartoonist:

"Poor Teddy stands beside the block in silent content; no longer does he sadly think where all his friends have went, for well he knows, like fairy tales, the story is too old, that little dogs were all ground up, and then were finally sold for sausage fresh and sausage smoked it was a grewsome joke. But now wise Teddy winks his eye and this is what he spoke: "Three cheers for the P. P. & P. Co., who now so grandly stand Premier in sausage making, the best there is in the land. The finest meat and flavor is added for to make the only kind of sausage like the farmer tries to make; and Teddy tips you gently as he watches on in glee at the sale of finest sausage that his brothers used to be."

Miss Corrigan has submitted several other cartoons which the publishers have accepted and these will appear in issues of the magazine in the near future.

Big Game At Park Tomorrow

Everything is in readiness for the baseball game at Page park tomorrow evening between the Sunnyside and Shadysoide teams of Donner avenue. Candidates for the two teams have been hard at work at practice during the past week, and one of the greatest contests ever witnessed on the local diamond is assured those who attend the game tomorrow evening.

Manager Lebowitz of the Sunnyside and Manager Eddy of the Shadyside, have refused to give out their lineup for the game this time, and it is feared that "ringers" are being imported for the occasion, as a victory is wanted badly by both managers. Second boseman Moore of the Sunnyside team, has several new trick plays ready to pull on the opposition tomorrow, and although ne is the oldest member of either aggregation, he is certain that he can make faster time on the bases than his younger brothers.

The entire proceeds of the game will be donated to the local playgrounds fund and a number of girls have made the rounds selling tickets for this worthy cause. The game will be called promptly at 4:30 and if darkness does not interfere will go to the full nine innings.

The Goose Girl

Dainty Margaret Clark, late star of "Baby Mine" and one of the most successful stage favorites appearing on the screen, will be seen here in the delightful romance of love and adventure, "The Goose Girl," today, and tomorrow night. The play is just teeming over with throbs and thrills and heart interest enough for two ordinary plays. It caused a sensation on Broadway and will be seen here at the house of class, Star theatre, home of Paramount and Fox attractions. 1t

The Monessen L. O. O. M. band Sunday evening gave a concert at the Charleroi bathing beach that attracted a large crowd to that point. A program of god numbers was presented. Domenic Greco directed the band. Louis and William Sauers, vocalists, sang various songs, doing both solo and duet work.

One Reason Why The Daily Leads

One of the many reasons why the Daily Independent has the largest circulation in the city and is the only live advertising medium in this end of the county is shown by the following figures secured during the past week:

During this seven day period the Independent carried 995 lines of local items under the Personal Column head, while the other two papers of the town combined printed but 332 lines, a little over a third of the amount that appeared in the Independent. The three daily papers of Greensburg, the county seat, carried but 317 lines or less than one third that appearing in the daily of this city.

The Independent carried 367 lines of classified ads, which is five times as much as the other two papers of the city combined, neither of which have a regular classified column. The Daily sells for one cent, printed every afternoon, giving in fullest detail the latest news of the town happenings and carrying the ads of the more progressive merchants into practically every home within the borough limits.

Latest Dealings in Real Estate by the East Side Land Company

There has been considerable activity in lot buying from the East Side Land company during the past month, as the list below will verify.

This points to prosperity, and the continued inquiries is evidence of plenty of business in the near future.

Nothing is more noticeable in the town than the wonderful growth of the Twelfth street hill district the past year. A stroll through that vicinity will convince anyone that this part of the town is getting better every day. This hill is already closely built up, and many houses are being erected at the present time. There is still no lack of activity in this area, and houses on the hill are always in demand.

The following list of sales will give an idea of what is being done:

Joseph Nemoseck, lot on Delaware avenue, $300.00.

J. & H. Weightman, lot on Linden avenue, $550.00.

M. Sarraino, lot on Schoonmaker avenue, $1,500.00.

New Test Was Made Of Water

In view of the fact that a difference of over 7,000 germs was found in a cubic centimeter of city water, by the state authorities and the chemist for the Tri-Cities water company in recent tests, the local Board of Health submitted six samples of water to the state labratories on August 18 and again the city water was shown to have by far the largest number of bacteria.

The following is the result of the six samples sent to the state officials at Philadelphia; Well at 1028 Morgan avenue, 360 bacteria and 2 bactria coli; City Water at Light's drug store, 1,080 bacteria; Well at 100 Third street, 540 bacteria and 2 bactreia coli; Well at 119 Third street 420 bacteria and 136 bacteria coli; water at 16 Knox avenue, 840 bacteria; Well at 130 Third street, 540 bacteria and 96 bacteria coli.

The analysis of the Tri-Cities Water supply in this city on July 27 shows approximately 7,020 bacteria to a cubic centimeter and the drop of 6,000 germs is probably due to the fact that the water company is making good their claim of spending an additional $85 for a twelve hour run of the filtration plant. The company was not satisfied with the tests made by State officials and put their own chemist at work on several tests which showed the water almost 100 per cent. pure, which is quite natural, under the circumstances, but this more recent test by the state still shows over one thousand bacteria and ~~the company will have to~~ spend more than $85 to bring their water down to the standard as claimed by their chemist.

The bacteria coli referred to is a germ in the sewage showing surface polution.

A jolly crowd of young girls from this city left early this morning for the Bentleyville campmeeting grounds, where they will go into camp for the next two weeks under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. S. Moore and Miss Jeannette Wilson. They expect to have a great time in the woods and have named their camp "Camp Cheerful" with a welcome for all their friends.

Included in the party were Thelma Anderson, Annabelle Watt, Elizabeth Gress, Eleanor Day, Ruth Kirk, Janice Greer, Helen Williamson, Rhudell Shuster and Katherine Moore. Dorothy Sattley, Virginia Rinehart and Eleanor Kelly expect to join the campers next week.

Boys Are Held For Theft Of Lead Pipe And Copper

Four young boys, Henry Larguier, Nick Socoko, Mike Roney and Mike Malyniak were before Burgess Dunlap charged with the theft of a quantity of lead pipe, brass and copper fittings and three copper kettles. Three of the boys, Larguier, Socoko and Romey admitted the theft of the copper boilers, which they sold for 30 cents each to a junk dealer.

For some time past thefts of lead pipe, copper and brass fittings have been reported from houses in course of construction and the police have made a diligent search in an effort to catch the guilty parties. Witnesses at the hearing this morning testified that local junk dealers employed boys, paying them good commissions for collecting junk and it is estimated that their commission would average $4.00 and $5.00 a day.

Mike Malyniak, the youngest of the prisoners, it is claimed, carried on an exclusive junk business for himself and bought all kinds of lead and copper, paying better prices than other junk dealers. It is thought that he can furnish a clue as to the theft of the lead pipe which has been taken from the new residences of J. P. Reagan on McKee avenue, the Reed & Borenstein building on Schoonmaker avenue and the Dr. Barben building on Fifth street. He has a large melting pot and melts all lead, so that a searching party could not identify their missing property.

A search warrant was issued for the homes of all the lads arrested as well as the local junk dealers, and the boys were sent back to their cells to await the outcome of this investigation.

Narrow Escape

Harry Christner, driver of the large jitney bus, his brother-in-law, Howard Wade and cousin, Harvey Younkin, had a narrow escape from serious injury or death Saturday night when a Ford car in which they wer riding, turned turtle in the center of the road at a point near Bridgeport, near Mt. Pleasant.

Christner was visiting relatives at Bridgeport and was out for a little ride with Wade and Kounkins. When making a turn, a tire exploded and the car was thrown from its course, turning turtle. The men were caught under the machine, but one succeed~~ed in~~ getting out ~~and summoned~~ help. Christner sustained injuries about the left shoulder. All three were taken to the Mt. Pleasant hospital, but were able to return home yesterday. The top of the car was badly damaged.

Bob Struck out.

County Commissioner W. Dick Reamer has gone to the trouble of publishing a defense in order to set himself and the other members of the board right against attacks made upon himself and his fellow office holders by one R. W. Hurburt of the Greensburg Tribune. The title of the paper is "Facts and Figures" and Mr. Reamer goes into detail to explain the grumblings of the sore editor. The paper contains much for the reflection of the taxpayers and makes the Tribune swallow some pretty straight facts. There are no such statements in the answer as "it is alleged," and "it is rumored" but the issue gives figures that can be verified by the records of the court house and contains sworn statements of other officials The paper makes Hurbert and his Tribune look like thirty cents. In other words it shows that the Tribune has been a grafter at the trough and that it has double charged the county as well as the state. Reamer shows plainly that he defeated the Tribune's scheme for hogging the county printing, and for almost four years he has held Bob and his sheet at bay. It was a ten stroke to break up that gang of grafters, and Dick is not agraid to tell how it was done. The slate that was being made to fill the court house with subservient tools seems to have a temporary lull as things at headquarters are very calm.

"Facts and Figures" says: "Watch carefully the Tribune, it will likely just before the primary election, attack, abuse and assail; but remember this, neither myself nor any other candidate has any chance to come back. We have no paper, unfortunately this man has, and as abuse and deception are his mania, we appeal to the people for justice, fair play and the absolute truth which he does not give."

His eleventh hour dope will not go. The Tribune has shot its wad. It has published lies and when asked to correct them, it has turned a deaf ear to the appeal. All that men want in this world is a square deal. The Tribune won't grant this. Its backers won't grant it and when the eleventh hour campaign rot is sprung, there will be a defense more powerful than the attack and men wronged will be set right. This is an open primary election, and the people are going to name the ticket that will be placed on the ballot this fall. The patronage that has gone to the Tribune office and Press office (both under one roof) must be distributed throughout the county and coal companies must be taxed in proportion to other corporations and individuals.

The "Movie" Lines

Sometimes you hear a minister in the pulpit denounce the theatres, the dance hall and the moving picture show all in one breath of disgusting language. It is mostly the evangelist who so compromises himself and exposes his ignorance to the general public.

The moving pictures have become a part of our great civilization and education. It would seem like stepping back an age to be without the "movies," just the same as it would to do without the automobile, and the church as well as other institutions may as well bring itself to understand the moving picture show cannot be hampered by narrow minds. It will grow and thrive in spite of all that can be said and done, and it is gratifying to note that while evangelists who are preaching to the galleries have directed their energies against this form of education and amusement, there are congregations looking with favor upon the "movie" as a means of bringing the scriptures more vividly to the human mind. Out in Illinois many Methodist ministers have adopted the movies as a substitute for sermons and at a recent ministerial meeting at Aurora, that state, the Rev. James O'May made a convincing talk on the subject and more ministers decided to adopt this form of worship. The quesion will naturally arise then, why movies in the church and not in the theatre?

The Tribune again sounds the warning that if the "right" men are not nominated by the Republicans, that it will be an enormous job to elect them. Possibly true. Robert.

No Monessen justice's name is listed among the county squires who have been robbing foreigners. This fact should be taken into consideration by the voters September 21st.

Wonder what has become of the Brumbaugh boom for the presidency. We haven't heard about it in a long time. Must be the boomers have become somewhat discouraged.

MUST NOT MAKE LIQUOR PLEDGES

Wrong For Judiciary Candidates to Take a Stand.

OPINION BY SUPERIOR COURT

President Judge Rice Points Out That An Aspirant for a Seat on the Bench Who Announces How He Will Decide Liquor Applications Disqualifies Himself and Brings Discredit to the Court.

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—Candidates for the judiciary in counties where the liquor issue overshadows everything else recently learned that it will be dangerous for them to try and reach the bench by means of ante-election promises. The Superior Court, in language that does not bear misunderstanding, emphatically denies the right of a man aspiring to become judge to say before election that if successful at the polls he will grant all liquor licenses or refuse all liquor licenses.

Latterly in sections that give promise of becoming hotbeds on the liquor question, men who seek to elevate themselves to the bench, or to gain re-election to that position, have felt it expedient to take a decided stand and announce to the electors just where they stood on the question of new or old liquor licenses. Now they discover that they have no more right to make such a declaration than they would have to announce beforehand the granting of all divorce petitions, or to promise that they will give binding instructions for the plaintiff in every lawsuit.

What adds zest to the decision of the Superior Court is the fact that it was written by President Judge Charles E. Rice, than whom there is no more scholarly judge on either of the higher benches, and who, while common pleas judge of Luzerne County, never gave a liquor license to a new house.

In the case decided it was alleged that two judges, while candidates for office, announced to the voters that if fortunate enough to be elected they would refuse all liquor licenses. After quoting the statutes and decisions on them, Judge Rice, in his opinion comments as follows:

"Obviously, therefore, no judge whose duty is to hear and decide has a legal or moral right to disqualify himself to render a just decision, by determining before hearing that he will grant all applications or refuse all applications. Of what avail is a hearing before such a tribunal? It would be a mere idle ceremony, discreditable to the court that conducted it and tending to bring the administration of law into contempt. As well might the judge refuse to hear, as to publicly pledge himself or secretly resolve not to consider and be guided by the pertinent facts and circumstances brought before him at the hearing or of which he has knowledge, and the law applicable thereto."

Judge Rice further says that nowhere has the principle he states been more forcibly expressed than in the following excerpt from the opinion of Judge Dean in Gross's License:

"For example if a judge should refuse a license, because in his opinion the law authorizing license is a bad law, or if he should grant all licenses because he believed the law wrong as tending to confer a privilege on a special few, in either case there would be no exercise of judicial discretion: both would be the mere despotic assertion of arbitrary will by one in power, that sort of lawlessness which is least excusable and excites most indignation."

In the case considered by Judge Rice the Superior Court did not decide in favor of the complainant because he was unable to prove that the judges, when candidates, publicly announced their future stand on liquor questions. It was shown that advertisements containing their alleged position were freely circulated about the district, but when confronted they denied any connection with the circulars. In other words, to use the language of the Court, "it could not be proven that the pledges were made by their direction or by anyone authorized to speak for them."

The decision of Judge Rice, however, will have an important bearing on the judicial situation in a number of counties. Frequently men of the class of lawyers who live by their wits are only too eager to take advantage of a community that is strong at a particular time for a particular principle. These attorneys see before them an opportunity for political advancement and readily espouse any set of principles, whether they believe in them or not, in order to gain a seat on the bench. They do not hesitate to promise anything that will aid them in attaining their ambition.

Undoubtedly the words of the Superior Court judge will have a salutary effect on such men. It brings home to them the fact that they can not hope to reach a judicial height by a ladder of deception, the rungs of which spell lawlessness and which they are using to hoodwink a sincere constituency. Those who run such risk may, in the event of election, discover that they cannot take the oath of office.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section. 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is propesed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section eight, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law: but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, May be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund of their cancellation shall be established and maintained," so that it shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation. The city of Philadelphia, upon the conditions hereinafter set forth, may increase its indebtedness to the extent of three per centum in excess of seven per centum upon such assessed valuation for the specific purpose of providing for all or any of the following purposes,—to wit: For the construction and improvement of subways, tunnels, railways, elevated railways, and other transit facilities; for the construction and improvement of wharves and docks and for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves and docks, owned or to be owned by said city. Such increase, however, shall only be made with the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, to be held in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of said city of Philadelphia, at any time, there shall be excluded from the calculation a credit, where the work resulting from any previous expenditure, for any one or more of the specific purposes hereinabove enumerated shall be yielding to said city an annual current net revenue; the amount of which credit shall be ascertained by capitalizing the annual net revenue during the year immediately preceding the time of such ascertainment. Such capitalization shall be accomplished by ascertaining the principal amount which would yield such annual, current net revenue, at the average rate of interest, and sinking-fund charges payable upon the indebtedness incurred by said city for such purposes, up to the time of such ascertainment. The method of determining such amount, so to be excluded or allowed as a credit, may be prescribed by the General Assembly.

In incurring indebtedness, for any one, or more of said purposes of construction, improvement, or reclamation, the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligation at maturity, the payments to such sinking-fund to be in equal or graded annual instalment. Such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for and may include the amount of the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges, as required by section ten of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of such work.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER VOTE FOR BEN STEELE

His record as Sheriff speaks for him. In three years and six months he has cleared for the taxpayers over and above all expenses and salary the sum of $16,000.

Following is what his home paper, the Irwin Republican Standard, has to say of him·—

"Candidates for county offices are looming up, and among them Irwin and vicinity has one who is looked upon as the right man. We refer to Ben Steele, now ending up his term as one of the best sheriffs Westmoreland has ever had. This is not an empty remark, but is borne out by his splendid record in the office, turning nearly $13,400 into the treasury in three years after salaries and expenses were paid. If he could have succeeded himself there would have been nothing to it for renomination So the cry went up from all parts of the county, "we want more of Ben Steele," and he is a candidate for county commissioner, an exacting place from the standpoint of the tax payer, and where he would bring to bear the same honesty of purpose he has evidenced in his public office and in his dealings with his fellowman Ben Steele arose from the people as a coal miner. He finally set himself up in business in this town and later was elected tax collector for Irwin. He made a record for him self in this office that stands out boldly as one of the best the town has ever had. He was next appointed postmaster and he was especially commended for his efficiency by Postmaster General Wanamaker. All this is to show Ben Steele's policy of being right and doing right; and no doubt the voters will say he is the right man for the office of county commissioner and this is said after hearing reports from all parts of Westmoreland."

ARE WOMEN NATURALLY DESPONDENT?

A prominent writer so claims. Women are constituted with a delicate organism and in nine cases out of ten, mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, sleeplessness, backaches, causing constant misery and as a result despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, is the one great remedy for this condition It goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes despondency.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Monessen Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this, the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Monessen people endorse their worth.

Mrs. J. F. Leonard, 7 McKee avenue, Monessen, says: "I was bothered by a dull, heavy pain in my back for several years. While doing my housework, my back throbbed just like a toothache. If I stooped over, the pain caught me and I could hardly straighten. I often got so dizzy that I had to sit down. My head ached and my eyes were affected. I felt tired and languid all the time. I tried everything but didn't improve until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. The second box drove away the trouble. Occasionally I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills when I work hard or catch cold. They never fail to help me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Leonard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
